

Feature 479 Analysis

Activation Distribution

Feature Statistics

Sparsity: 0.999
Mean Activation: 0.818
Max Activation: 1.520
Decoder Norm: 1.000
Examples Found: 11

Context Around Peak Activations

- Ex1 (1.520): he met . He loved meeting new people and showing off how obed ient he could be . People would say , " What a
- Ex2 (1.394): She started to gather pieces of wood and flowers to build her h ive . <unk> <unk> Just then , a butterfly flew by .
- Ex3 (1.200): the sack yourself ." <unk> <unk> Sarah was excited and put her d olly safely into the big sack . She looked up
- Ex4 (1.173): day because sometimes it felt like the world was too rough and un kind . <unk> <unk> One day Tom spoke to his mom and
- Ex5 (1.090): a time there was a girl called Emma . Emma was very obed ient . One morning , Emma went into her classroom . As
- Ex6 (1.081): , something wonderful happened ! His dad decided that he was an obed ient dog , so he was going to become a model !
- Ex7 (1.068): , there was a little girl named Lily . Lily was very obed ient , which means she always listened to her mom my and
- Ex8 (1.045): â € Gr anny replied , â € œ Yes , it â €™ s a lovely day . Let â €™ s go .
- Ex9 (1.038): and said , â € œ No , Tom . You don â €™ t need it . We already have enough stamps . â
- Ex10 (1.016): meet the animals and she replied â € œ hi ! It â €™ s so nice to meet you ! â € <unk> <unk>
- Ex11 (1.013): , " Hel ping each other can make cho res seem like less of a chore . It 's so much nicer to do them